Humble Thanks!

It is with humble gratitude that we pass on a huge thank you to all who participated in our 2019 Parish Bazaar this past Saturday. From those who generously gave donations for our various booths, helped in publicizing the event, provided fresh baking, helped sort and price items, prepared and ran the different booths, cooked and served lunch and dessert, counted the proceeds, helped tear down and clean up afterwards to all those parishioners who came out on Saturday and visited and gave generously in their purchases, we are truly thankful for your participation! It is one of those great parish events that brings together under one roof the different generations and parishioners from the different Mass times to catch up with each other as a wider parish family. In the end, we raised $6961, (with a couple more silent auction items to go!) which will go a long way to help inspire, encourage and deepen the faith lives of our children and grandchildren in our parish. Thank you for helping to build up our parish community and set a foundation for the future!

Many times when we visit we hear "I know you pray for me, I can feel it".

Celtic concert is coming up next Sunday!

We look forward to seeing you there!
